

Sally Herman '74

Sally attended Kambala from 1962 to 1974 when she was House Captain of Roseby. She attended the University of New South Wales where she completed her Bachelor of Arts before starting a career in financial services, which would take her to live and work in Melbourne, Los Angeles and New York.

She spent 16 years with the Westpac Group, running major business units in most operating divisions of the Group, including the Institutional Bank, Wealth Management (BT Financial) and the Retail and Business Banking division. Her last role at Westpac was heading up Corporate Affairs and Sustainability, a role she held through the merger with St George and also throughout the global financial crisis. In late 2010 she transitioned to a career as a Non-Executive Director in the fields of financial services, retail, manufacturing and property.

Sally now sits on both listed and unlisted boards of companies including Suncorp Group Limited, Premier Investments Limited and Breville Group Limited. She is also on the board of Investec Property Limited, the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust and the Sydney Film Festival. She is a member of Chief Executive Women.

Community involvement is important to Sally. She has particular interests in education, the arts and disability. Sally was President of the Kambala School Council for 4 years until mid 2018. She was honoured to have served the school in this role.
